WHILE HIS FAMILY ARE AWAY

de Was Found Hanging From a Hafter in the Attie of His Residence Lass Night.

Aulte Schusferra, aged 70 years, comnumeif with a clothreline in the attic of his residence at No. 311 Eleventh street while his family were away spending Thunksgiving with a married daughter living on Crandville avenue. No cause for the old man's self-destruction is known by his family.

itis aged wife and two children, who compresed the family living at home, got ready to go to the daughter's about to occook in the morning and he told them that he did not care to go. The family could not care to go and them, but they did not notice anything wrong in his general appearance. He seemed as cheerful as usual when the family left. When they returned short ly after dark the house was cold and the ly after than the house was cold and the old man was utissing. After waiting some time the lamily, becoming marmed, a search was instituted through the house. One of the sons went up stairs with a light and was horrified to see his father hanging from a rafter lead. He was dressed as usual, and a small stool was near his feet. It evident that he stood on stood while he attached the which was double, around the neck. The police station and Under-taker Joidersma were notified and each called a coroner. Coroner Bradish was tirst on the scene and had ordered the body taken down before Coroner Locher arrived. Schanisma had lived in this country only about a year, he and his wife having come from Holland at the solicitation of some of their children who had preceeded them. He leaves a wife and six children, one of whom is J. A. Schaafsens of No. 312 West Leonard street assistant superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company. His domestic relations are reported to have been pleasant and he was well provided for by his children, which makes the cause for his self-destruction a mystery to his family.

KNIGHTS ARE UNDAUNTED. Meeting Last Night to Discuss the Condition of the Order. Like true knights, the Knights of Labor of this city are not dismayed at the loss of the leader of their order. Mr. Powlerly's resignation has not daunted them in the least. Last night all the local assembles met in Central Labor Union hall to discuss the state of the order. The meeting was of course scene and nothing could be learned of the discussion and nothing could be learned of the dis-cussion but the knights talked quite freely after the meeting. One of them said: "Powderly was a great man but he is not the only man. Some fellow will fake up the work and we will keep right on up stream. There has been a little difference between Gompers and Powderly and if a new man is elected it may prove a mighty good thing for it may settle these differences. Powderly will not change his ideas and he will be loval to any man who may be elected to loyal to any man who may be elected to till his place."

For the U. B. A. Home. A meeting of the young ladies' societies connected with the various churches of the city has been called for Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Sunday school room of Park congregational church for the purpose of discussing ways and means for assisting the U. B. A. home financially. The object of the meeting is to create a movement among the young ladies in the interest of the home, and all young women, whether home, and all young women, whether members of any of the above named societies or not, are invited to be present.
The meeting will be addressed by Dr. S.

Collections Were Takes for the Poor and Local Benevolent Institutions. A Few Paton Services.

Thankegiving day was pretty gener-erally observed by the local churches esterday and special services were held n many of them by the regular pastor or the paster from a neighboring church. Collections were taken for the poor or for some special benevolent institution, and prayers in thanksgiving were offered for the many blessings and successis of the year. The church buildings were weil filled and the services were more largely attended than for several years pust on this holiday.

The methodists from the various churches of that denomination held a churches of that denomination held a union meeting in the Division street church at 10:30. The music was especially fine and the Rev. W. A. Frye of the Plainfield avenue church delivered the sermon. At the close of the services a collection was taken for the U. B. A. home, from which a goodly sum was realized.

In Smith Memorial church a special prayer service was held from 9 until 10 o'clock. The hour was spent in offering supplications for the poor and needy, and returning thanks for the many blessings of the year. The choir rendered excellent music adapted to the occasion, and the Rev. Thomas R. Mc Robe ta the church pastor, conducted the services. This church was also well filled with the members of that den

There was a large crowd of liberalists There was a large crowd of liberalists at All Souls' church on Sheldon street at 11 a. m. It was a union meeting of all the liberal churches in the city, and the several pastors joined in conducting the special Thanksgiving services. Brief ad tresses were made by the Revs. Charles Fluhrer, George N. Smith, F. W. N. Hugenholtz and Rabbi Jesselson. The choir readered some well selected music, and the Rev. H. Digby Johnston of Unity church delivered the sermon of the morning.

Fountain street baptist church rang with Thanksgiving music yesterday morning and sweet flowers ient their incense to the joyful hour. Those of the baptist denomination were specially thankful and a glorious service was the result. At 11 o'clock the pastor, the Rev. Dr. John L Jackson, delivered a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

The day was celebrated with high mass in all the catholic churches.

St. Mark's church held two services, one at 9:30 and the other at 10:30. At one at 9:30 and the other at 10:30. At 10:30 Dr. Fair preached a special sermon and the choir rendered an anthem under the direction of Francis Campbell. The members made their church offerings and a special collection was taken for St. Mark's hospital.

DINNER AT THE HOMES. How the Charitable Institutions Fared on Thanksgiving Day.

At the various charitable homes the day was made as pleasant as possible for the patients and inmates. All were well remembered by the generous pub-lic and all expressed their gratitude for the good things sent in for these worthy institutions. At St. Mark's the dinner consisted of turkey and all the articles that go with it to make a good homelike Thanksgiving dinner. The nurses were not forgotten. They sat down to as good a repast as any one in the city. Their tables were prettily bedecked with carnations, chrysanthemums, roses and other flowers, all sent in by grateful

The U. B. A. home was the scene of an equally good dinner for all who were able to partake of a hearty meal. The public remembered the worthy institution very generously and the corps of nurses and the matron as well as the managers unite in thanking all who donated articles for the benefit of their

Woman's Home and Hospital, and all partook of an excellent meal of turkey and all the accompanying good dishes that usually make up a good Thanksgiving dinner.

No one enjoys Thanksgiving so much as children, and the Children's home on Cherry street was the happiest place in the city all day. In the morning thirty-six of the little opes attended services at St. Mark's. The other eight were kept at home for various reasons. The dinner was the best that many of them had ever enjoyed. Many friends of the home visited it during the day and left something behind to aid the noble work being done there.

DON'T PAY THEIR BILLS. Detroit Democrats Fall to Meet

Campaign Expenses. DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 30.—There are a few creditors of the democratic mayoralty committee who are anxious about the payment of their bills, and some of them have done some lively skirmmishing to get their accounts squared. Peter Grogan, the hackman, wants $56. He said today: "I am not the only hackman who is looking for his pay. I think they had nearly every hack in town, and I believe most of them are still looking for their money. Our bills were sent in some time ago, and it is about time we got our money." It is said that some of the musicians that furnished musical enthusiasm for the democrate at their various meetings and at the big parade are also troubled at the slowness with which the cash for the work is coming in. When Professor Schremser was asked about the affair, he said: "There was due me a bill of $50 and one of $36 for music at Arbeiter DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 30 .- There are a $50 and one of $36 for music at Arbeiter hall meetings. When I presented the bills to Chairman John A. Grogan he said the congressional committee would settle. I called on the congressional committee and was referred back to the city committee. After some further talk with Mr. Grogan he indorsed the bills and told me to present them to Mr. Godfey, which I have yet to do.

DEEDED HIS HOUSE, An Alleged Eloper Come Down Very

Handsomely. TRAVERSE CITY, Mich., Nov. 30 .- S.W. Perkins, for several years in the meat business here, and Miss Almeda Willing of Cadillac, disappeared about the same time, and are supposed to be together. Perkins recently sold his interest in the meat market to his brother-in law, Amos Bingbam. A week ago Bingbam started on the road to dispose of mince meat. Perkins and Miss Willing went to Petoskey and registered at the hotel, it is alleged, as S. W. Perkins and wife. When Bingham learned of this he com-pelled Perkins to deed his house, lot and furniture to his wife. The couple then left Petoskey for parts unknown.
